Complementary Therapy

Thank you for your generosity

Complementary Therapy Treatment

These therapies can offer patients benefits which include:

- Reduction in pain and other symptoms
- Improvements in circulation, tension and muscle tone
- Lessening of anxiety, stress and fear
- Promotion of a sense of wellbeing and relaxation

Assessment – Individually tailored treatment provided after initial assessment with the patient which could include massage, aromatherapy, reflexology, Reiki, gentle touch and relaxation/stress relief techniques or a combination of any of these as needed.

Products – Medical grade essential oils and related products prepared to individual prescription used during treatments and offered for personal use by the patient.

Staff – Each patient receives their treatment from a supportive, caring, highly qualified and experienced therapist.

Environment – Private, quiet, peaceful therapy rooms where patient comfort is a priority. Alternatively treatments are offered in the patient's Hospice bedroom.

Surroundings – This includes heating, electricity, equipment, laundry, products and consumables.
